ANNOUNCEMENTS

COVID-19 Updates

The Office of Strategic Communications has developed a website with information regarding FHSU's response to the coronavirus pandemic. This includes FAQ's for faculty, staff, students and university stakeholders, a record of university updates, as well as recommendations and resources for health and wellness. Please see the website: <https://www.fhsu.edu/covid-19-response>

Calendar: Upcoming Professional Development Opportunities

Check out upcoming professional development opportunities! The TILT TigerLearn event calendar is your go-to for professional development at FHSU! Check it out here: <http://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/events/>.

To provide faculty and staff with one easy place to see all professional development at FHSU, we're happy to include your event on the TigerLearn calendar. We can include links to your registration site, contact persons for questions, etc. Just contact TILT-FacultyDev@fhsu.edu, and we'll add your event right away!

Fall '20 and Spring '21 Memorial Union Reservations

The Memorial Union will begin processing reservations for August 1, 2020 – July 31, 2021 on the Monday following spring break (March 30, 2020). For the best chance at reserving your preferred room for departmental meetings, student organization events, weddings, conferences, and much more please contact the Memorial Union at 785-628-5305 or fhsuunion@fhsu.edu. Rooms will be reserved on a first come, first served basis and are subject to availability.

John Heinrichs Scholarly and Creative Activities Day UPDATE

In light of recent events, the SACAD committee would like to offer a simplified virtual platform for students, faculty, and staff to display and share their research and scholarly activity. We will continue accepting poster submissions and have extended the deadline to April 10th. Unfortunately, we have decided to suspend the oral presentations and art and creative works portions of the event. Below is a list of changes that are associated with the poster submissions:

- Posters will not be judged and therefore prizes will not be awarded.
- Posters will be available for viewing via a Google slide show on April 22nd. More details will follow.
- Door prizes will not be given out this year.

While we are saddened that the 15th annual SACAD event cannot happen in its full capacity, we are grateful that we can still offer an opportunity for you to share your hard work with the FHSU community. Those who have or were planning to submit an oral presentation are alternatively encouraged to submit a poster. Please let me know if you have any questions!

Poster submissions are still accepted at <https://fhsu.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1806323>. This announcement supersedes all details listed in the submission portal.

Questions? Contact Misty Koonse at mjkoonse@fhsu.edu

Student Employee Appreciation

To All Supervisors of Student Employees:

It's time to start planning . . . April 12-18 is National Student Employment Week, and the Student Employment Office encourages everyone to show their appreciation for all of the wonderful student employees we have here at Fort Hays State University. They are a very vital part of our organization and make many important contributions to our operation.

Please take some time during the week of April 12-18 to express your appreciation for our student employees' hard work and dedication. In light of our current working environment, we encourage you to show your appreciation to your students electronically. A few ideas: send them an email, e-card, or even a "Praise" in Microsoft Teams!

Please share this information with other supervisors in your area.

Experiential Learning Grants/Service Learning Fellows

The deadline to apply for Experiential Learning Innovation Grants or the Service-Learning Faculty Fellows Program is April 10th. For more information, please visit:

https://www.fhsu.edu/academic/provost/Experiential_Learning/index

Direct questions regarding these funding opportunities to the Experiential Learning Committee Chair through the Provost's Office.

Tiger Food Pantry

FHSU Food and Hunger Initiatives

The Tiger Food Pantry is currently located in the Meadowlark Room of the Memorial Union, and is accessible from 8:30am-10:30am MWF. If you are interested in donating food items please contact Bob Duffy through email at Rduffy@fhsu.edu.

Academic Advising Training CANCELLED; Webinars Will Continue As Scheduled

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester.

In response to FHSU's COVID-19 response, the AACE Center has decided to cancel the Career Advising Certificate training sessions for the spring semester. The AACE Center believes that advisors play a significant role in the support of our students while they are transitioning during these unprecedented times.

The AACE Center remains committed to providing professional development to advisors. This summer trainings will resume with priority being the Advising Technology Certificate.

NACADA Webinars (delivery mode change)

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center and Office of Student Affairs will be providing access to the following webinars from NACADA: The Global Community for Academic Advising thanks to the generosity of the Office of Student Affairs. These webinars are open to faculty and staff. Links to the recorded webinar and handouts will be emailed within two weeks after the broadcast date to those that have RSVP'd, along with date the link expires.

Wednesday, April 15, 2020 - Academic Advising for Social Justice: Theory, Reflection, and Practice

Thursday, May 21, 2020 - Blunt Empathy: Skills and Techniques for Delivering Unwanted News in Academic Advising Situations

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to "Accept and Send the Response Now". This will allow us to provide appropriate access and handouts for each session.

Questions should be directed to advising@fhsu.edu.

Tiger Wellness Center

The Tiger Wellness Center is still closed until further notice but we want to still help you out. Follow us on our social media platforms where we are still posting workouts, workout videos, educational posts/videos, recipes, challenges, and much more.

Novels for Hope

We have re-designed the Novels for Hope experience and now participants can engage with other readers digitally Goodreads <https://www.goodreads.com/topic/show/21301434-white-kids-book-discussion> while reading the book on and then in a Zoom discussion after completing the book. Given all the changes to our lives, we have decided to continue our read of White Kids: Growing Up with Privilege in a Racially Divided America by Margaret A. Hagerman and move the Zoom discussion to April 30 at 4pm. The Zoom link will be e-mailed to those who participate.

Novels for Hope is a diversity book club which provides an opportunity to read and discuss 2-3 books a semester. Each book and discussion is free-standing, meaning signing up for one book/discussion does not require participation in others.

You can access the audiobook for free on the Hays Public Library App Hoopla. The book is also available for purchase on Kindle and Audible.

To participate, please go to Tigerlink: <https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/373204> where you will be asked a few questions and given more details about the Goodreads group and the Zoom discussion.

For any questions please email: diversity@fhsu.edu

Our second Novels for Hope Book is White Kids: Growing Up with Privilege in a Racially Divided America by Margaret A. Hagerman.

American kids are living in a world of ongoing public debates about race, daily displays of racial injustice, and for some, an increased awareness surrounding diversity and inclusion. In this heated context, sociologist Margaret A. Hagerman zeroes in on affluent, white kids to observe how they make sense of privilege, unequal educational opportunities, and police violence. In fascinating detail, Hagerman considers the role that they and their families play in the reproduction of racism and racial inequality in America.

White Kids: Growing Up with Privilege in a Racially Divided America, based on two years of research involving in-depth interviews with white kids and their families, is a clear-eyed and sometimes shocking account of how white kids learn about race. In doing so, this book explores questions such as, “How do white kids learn about race when they grow up in families that do not talk openly about race or acknowledge its impact?” and “What about children growing up in families with parents who consider themselves to be ‘anti-racist’?”

Electronic Resource Feature: National Emergency Library

A new resource has been added to Forsyth Library’s A-Z list of databases.

The Internet Archive established the National Emergency Library which is “a collection of books that supports emergency remote teaching, research activities, independent scholarship, and intellectual stimulation.” This collection provides access to physical books which do not have electronic format options, particularly for works between the mid-1920s-1990s.

To access this resource, users must create a free account. Loans are for 14 days and users may place their name on a wait list for a title if it is already checked out. The availability of the library is through “June 30, 2020, or the end of the US national emergency, whichever is later. After that, waitlists will be dramatically reduced to their normal capacity, which is based on the number of physical copies in Open Libraries.” More information can be found on their FAQ document.

For questions about this resource, contact Jennifer Sauer, Scholar Services & E-Resources Librarian at jsauer@fhsu.edu.

Accession Communicator

With the recent change to working remotely, Technology Services has been providing FHSU employees with helpful information for making this transition easier. We have recently added material on another application, the Accession Communicator, to our Working Remotely webpage.

With the Accession Communicator, you can easily make & receive phone calls, directly from your computer or mobile device, that appear to be dialed from your office phone number.

For the step-by-step installation instructions of the Accession Communicator application, please follow the guidelines listed on our Working Remotely webpage.

FHSU Management Development Center Launches Online Training

We have been working hard to adapt to our new environment and are proud to launch a variety of online training opportunities beginning April 7! We currently have three different types of training:

1. Virtual Lunch n' Learn Series - If you are working from home and no longer have anyone to eat with, we'll be your lunch buddy! We have partnered with the Hays Chamber to develop a weekly Lunch n' Learn series. Join us virtually on your lunch break for fun, positive and relevant content every Thursday beginning April 9 from 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM. Lunch n' learns are free to the public.

2. Mini Training Sessions - These are 15-30 minute virtual sessions with MDC facilitators that will cover a wide variety of topics. These sessions will focus on providing information, tips & tricks that you can implement in your daily life immediately. Mini training sessions are free to the public.

3. Online Workshops - This training will be similar to the public workshops that you already know and love. These interactive workshops will be full of activities and exercises to help you practice what you learn. The workshops feature a blend of live virtual discussion & learning as well as asynchronous online learning and activities you can do at your convenience. Online workshops will be up to 4 hours long and registration is $20.

- Upcoming Training –

Running an Effective Virtual Meeting

April 7, 9:00 – 9:30 AM

Have you ever sat through an online meeting that made you want to pull your hair out? There is an art to running a virtual meeting! Hannah Hilker will give you tips and tricks to help your meetings run more smoothly in an age where Zoom or Skype Meetings are now the new normal.

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/running-an-effective-virtual-meeting-tickets-100835981134>

Lunch n' Learn: Work (or Home) Wellness

April 9, 11:30 – 12:30 PM

Did you know that those who sit for over 8 hours a day without getting any exercise have a similar risk of dying as smokers? Join us for a virtual lunch and learn session led by movement expert Dr. Aimee Riegel, Physical Therapist of FIT PT and Wellness, in which we will address critical health issues that affect desk workers. In this session, we will identify risks associated with prolonged sitting and learn techniques to incorporate throughout the work-day to negate the effects of postural strain, repetitive use movements, and improve overall health.

Register: <https://hayschamber.com/events/virtual-lunch-and-learn>

If you have any questions or concerns, contact Hannah Hilker at hehilker@fhsu.edu

Black & Gold Academy

The Black & Gold Academy will be hosted via Zoom on April 24th from 10:00AM-12:00PM! Join keynote speaker, Jason Bosch, with Elevate Agency, sponsored by Student Engagement and SAGA, to discuss What Does Leadership Look like in a Virtual World? To sign up, and to get the full details sign up on TigerLink. Questions? Contact Student Engagement at engage@fhsu.edu or 785-628-4664.

Student Organization Awards (SOAR)

SOAR will still be taking place only virtually! Student organizations still have the opportunity to submit award packets on TigerLink! The submissions are due by April 17th, and the awards will be presented on April 30th. Questions? Contact Student Engagement at engage@fhsu.edu or 785-628-4664.

Student Emergency Assistance Fund

The Student Emergency Assistance Fund was established ten years ago by President Mason when she served FHSU as the VP of Student Affairs as a way to help students facing significant financial challenges.

In light of the COVID-19 health crisis and the spring semester that our students are experiencing, students in high-need situations may apply for this financial assistance online – <https://fhsu.edu/sga/student-emergency-fund.html>. If you know of a student struggling financially, please refer them to this website.

In addition, we've launched a crowdfunding campaign to raise funds in support of these students who have nowhere else to turn and to help them stay in school

– <https://ifedthetiger.everydayhero.com/us/student-emergency-assistance-fund-1>

To learn more, please visit <https://fhsu.edu/news/2020/04/fhsu-accelerating-efforts-to-assist-students-in-urgent-financial-need>

I know that some of you are already aware of our Student Emergency Assistance Fund as we've seen gifts from many of you come in 😊 Thank you very much for your generosity (truly!), and for any help that you can provide in spreading the word about this fund.

Stay well and Go Tigers!

I Love FHSU Week – The Virtual Edition

The second annual I Love FHSU Week, sponsored by Tigers4Ever, the FHSU student alumni association, is a celebration of all that makes Fort Hays State University special. Even though many of the signature events have been cancelled or postponed, we will continue with a virtual edition running April 20-24. If you are planning an event during that time and would like to include it in the list of I Love FHSU Week activities, please e-mail Charlene Nichols – canichols5@fhsu.edu by noon on Friday, April 10 with details.

Faculty Development Funding

The last 2019-20 deadline with chair and dean electronic approval is April 20. (Select April 1 on application form.)

- The application process has migrated to Workday Workflows. Use Chrome browser.
- Complete and detailed application responses assist committee review and probability of full funding (within limit).
- Applications completing chair and dean electronic approval no later than April 20 will be considered in this cycle. Verify earlier department/college deadlines with your chair and dean.
- Bank Roll Over: available for higher cost events (over $3,000) occurring in the next academic year (20-21) and requires applying twice, in 19-20 and again in 20-21. Contact the Office of the Provost for details.
- Funding decisions are relayed approximately 2 weeks following the due date.

Read all instructions and guidelines/criteria/procedures prior to completing the application form (TigerNet ID required).

Recommended - Track your application's electronic progress after submission by returning to Academic Affairs Workflows.

The next application due date will be September 21, 2020.

If you have questions or would like assistance accessing and/or completing the FDF form, contact Janet Kohl in the Provost's Office at jakohl2@fhsu.edu or by phone, 4207.

New Fall 2020 Course: Write With Confidence!

ENG 121 Language Skills in the Professions (ONLINE, 3 credit hours) Open to All Students

Language Skills in the Professions prepares students to write with confidence and competence by exploring writing required in a variety of professional contexts and careers. This course is most appropriate for upper-division students seeking to hone their skills in audience consideration, purposeful/effective writing, and public and online presentation.

For more information contact Dr. Eric Leuschner, edleuschner@fhsu.edu.

Graduate Intro to Data Class for Fall 2020

The College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, in collaboration with Forsyth Library, is offering an online graduate-level course, IDS 815: Introduction to Data, in the fall 2020 semester.

The purpose of this course is to present a graduate-level introduction for using research and decision-making in order to prepare professionals to work with data in their chosen field. This course will cover foundational concepts for understanding various types of data and aligning research questions with strategies for data analysis. Students will learn to gather, analyze, manage, and communicate data in accordance with ethical and legal considerations.

This course would be ideal for students seeking a practical foundation of the research process and data and information management in any field of study. All graduate students are welcome!

Chartwells Cash Free

We will not be accepting cash at any of our locations in order to help prevent the spread of Covid-19. We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause!

Beginning French I: Fall 2020

Have you always wanted to learn another language? Are you looking for a class to fulfill general education credit hours in the Humanities? Do you need foreign language credit hours toward a B.A.? If you answered yes to any of these questions, in Fall 2020, Modern Languages will be offering MLNG 201, Beginning French I, on campus Monday through Thursday from 9:30-10:25am. This face-to-face French course will feature an open educational resource / low-cost textbook for the first time, which will cost students approximately $25. (Please note that the online course uses a different textbook.) Learning a language can be a great way to build your resume, experience another culture (such as through stories, shows, and music), enhance your perspective, develop critical thinking skills, and improve cognitive function. If you have any questions about this course, please contact Dr. Elizabeth Langley at eclangley@fhsu.edu.

Student Engagement Office Hours

Student Engagement is offering students, and student organizations the opportunity to ‘stop by’ via Zoom every Wednesday from 10:30AM-12:30PM. You can come and go as you please! We want to hear how you are doing, help you brainstorm ideas for the remainder of the semester so you do not have to cancel all your events, and even plan for the next semester! It is an informal gathering, and we would love to see you! To get the link or ask any questions email engage@fhsu.edu.
